

ROBERT F. CLARK, P. ENG.

Bob Clark has worked in the Development Industry for 32 years as a builder, an engineering consultant and as a land developer. A native Calgarian, Bob holds a degree in Civil Engineering from the University of Calgary and a diploma from the Banff School of Advanced Management.

In 1981 he commenced employment with Costain Limited, a land development and housing company with responsibility for several projects in the Calgary and Edmonton areas. In 1989 he joined Carma Developers Ltd. and has worked on the development of several master planned in the Calgary area He is currently Vice President of Calgary Land North with responsibilities for the communities of Tuscany, New Brighton, Auburn Bay and other landholdings in southeast Calgary

Bob maintains professional memberships in the Association of Professional Engineers, Geologists, and Geophysicists of Alberta, The Urban Land Institute, The Engineering Institute of Canada, and The Canadian Society for Civil Engineering.

He is a former Chairman of the Calgary Chapter of the Urban Development Institute and a Past President of the Urban Development Institute of Alberta. He is currently a member of the UDI Alberta Board of Directors, serving on the MGA Committee and the Wetlands Committee.

Bob is married with three children and enjoys skiing, hiking, backpacking, tennis, running and sailing.