

RUSSELL DAUK

Russell Dauk is presently the Vice President, Land and Communities for the Rohit Group of Companies. The Rohit Group is a diversified development and real estate company operating in the Capital Region as well as in Kelowna, Fort McMurray and Drayton Valley. Rohit's Development interests include land development, commercial development and both single family and multifamily housing. In addition to his formal role with Rohit, Russell has modest personal rental/apartment investments in both Saskatoon and the Capital Region.

Russell's background also includes 16 years of public sector planning experience with a range of municipalities including 6 years in Fort McMurray where he served as the Manager of Planning and Development for the rapidly growing Regional Municipality of Wood Buffalo. He possesses a Degree in Regional and Urban Planning from the University of Saskatchewan and a Certificate in Local Government Administration from the University of Alberta.

Russell was a past Director with AACIP (Alberta Association, Canadian Institute of Planners), and currently holds the position of Treasurer with UDI Alberta (Urban Development Institute).