

LOUISE GIBSON

Senior Development Manager
Carma Developers LP

Louise has been with Carma since February of 1998. She currently manages Carma's development in the Ellerslie area of south of Edmonton. The development of the innovative residential community of Summerside along with the Gateway Business Park supports the work, live, play philosophy. It represents a new approach to suburban development in Edmonton.

Louise is actively planning several new communities for Carma to introduce into the Edmonton marketplace.

Prior to managing Carma's Ellerslie lands, Louise was responsible for the development of Carma's Terwillegar Towne – northern Alberta's first neo-traditional community.

From 1980 to 1998, Louise was employed by the City of Edmonton in the Planning and Development and Transportation Departments as well as the Office of the City Manager. During her civic career, she was involved in downtown planning, heritage planning, suburban planning, transportation planning, land development and sales, and public participation programs.

Louise began her career in the Current Planning area of Alberta Municipal Affairs.

Louise was actively involved on the executive of the Urban Development Institute from 1999 to 2006 and remains involved through numerous committees. She is a member of the Planning and Development Committee of the Edmonton Chamber of Commerce. She is also active in the greater community as a member of the executive of the Grandview Community League and as treasurer of the Edmonton Children's Choir.

Louise is a graduate of the University of Waterloo with an Honours Bachelor of Environmental Studies Degree from the School of Urban and Regional Planning. She is a long standing member of the Alberta Association of the Canadian Institute of Planners.

Louise and her husband have two wonderful daughters.
