

MARISSA KOOP, BAHT, ISACA

With a strong understanding of wetland policy, mitigation, sustainability and environmental conditions, Marissa provides analytical assessment tools and strategic input to her clients and her projects. Her extensive experience working with wetlands in a wide variety of applications within Alberta gives her a strong knowledge base from which to work from. In combination with her knowledge of planning, approval and design processes, Marissa is able to achieve a balance between conservation of natural resources and project needs.