

CHRIS MANDERSON

Chris Manderson has been with the City of Calgary since 1998. He is currently leading the Natural Area Planning group in Parks and is responsible for development approvals and policy development. In 2004, He was the co-author of the Calgary Wetland Conservation Plan. Chris has over 20 years of experience in ecology and planning. Prior to joining the City of Calgary he worked as an environmental consultant in Alberta and Ontario.