

DAVID McKENNA

Graduate from University of Western Ontario. He has spent most of his career as a fish and wildlife biologist, working for various Provincial and Federal Departments across Canada. David has also worked as a consultant and as an educator. He has worked for the Alberta Government since 2000, having joined Alberta Environment in 2005. He is currently the Section Head of the Groundwater Policy Section, Water Policy Branch.