

MICHAEL MOONEY

Executive Director

Urban Development Institute Edmonton Region Chapter

Michael has been a land and property developer in the Edmonton region for 35 years. He worked for several major development companies and has experience in all types of land development and project development, including the highest residential high rise in Alberta, the largest single multifamily project in Alberta, the largest commercial mall in the world, major office complexes, Master Planned Residential Communities, Industrial parks and industrial business buildings.