

NORB PARK

Norb Park is a former board member of the Calgary Regional Home Builders Association, has been on their Sales and Marketing and Multi-family Committees. He is a former board member of the Calgary Home Builders Foundation and previously sat on the Marketing Advisory Committee for the Alberta New Home Warranty Program. Currently, he teaches Real Estate Marketing for the Department of Continuing Education at the University of Calgary.

Norb is the founder of SIX Real Estate Consulting Creative Marketing Solutions Inc. and a principal of SIX Realty Inc. SIX is a diversified real estate consulting firm with significant expertise in planning and marketing major real estate projects including some of Calgary and Edmonton's more successful high-rise developments. Prior to starting SIX Norb worked for major single family home builders as General Manager or Sales and Marketing Manager and at one point was a partner in a single family home building company.

Norb started his career in sales and has personal selling experience both inside and outside the housing industry. He has supervised or managed sales personnel since 1971.