

JODIE WACKO MCIP, ACP

Jodie is a professional urban planner with over 10 years of experience in planning and land development projects and associated process.

Jodie has worked as a senior planner with Strathcona County and, prior to joining Beaverbrook in 2006, was the Managing Senior Associate of Stantec Consulting's Edmonton Planning and Landscape Architecture Group where he was responsible for the management of over 30 professional and technical staff.

Through his past experience he has developed strong skill sets in client, public, administration and political liaison. He has managed the planning aspects of numerous new neighbourhoods in and around the Capital Region with a combined population build-out of nearly 200,000 people touching all levels of implementation including Area Structure Plans, Subdivision, Zoning and Public Consultation.

In his role as Director of Land Development with Beaverbrook, Jodie is responsible for all aspects of the entitlement process for Beaverbrook's 8 current projects. He is also the project manager for Beaverbrook's Stonecreek project which includes the management of the construction and also all sales aspects of the project.

In addition to his professional duties, Mr. Wacko sat as an elected member of Edmonton's Urban Development Institute from 2005 – 2007 and continues to be involved in several industry initiatives including affordable housing and regionalization.
